

-logy the study of

part of speech

archeology the study of the life and culture of ancient people

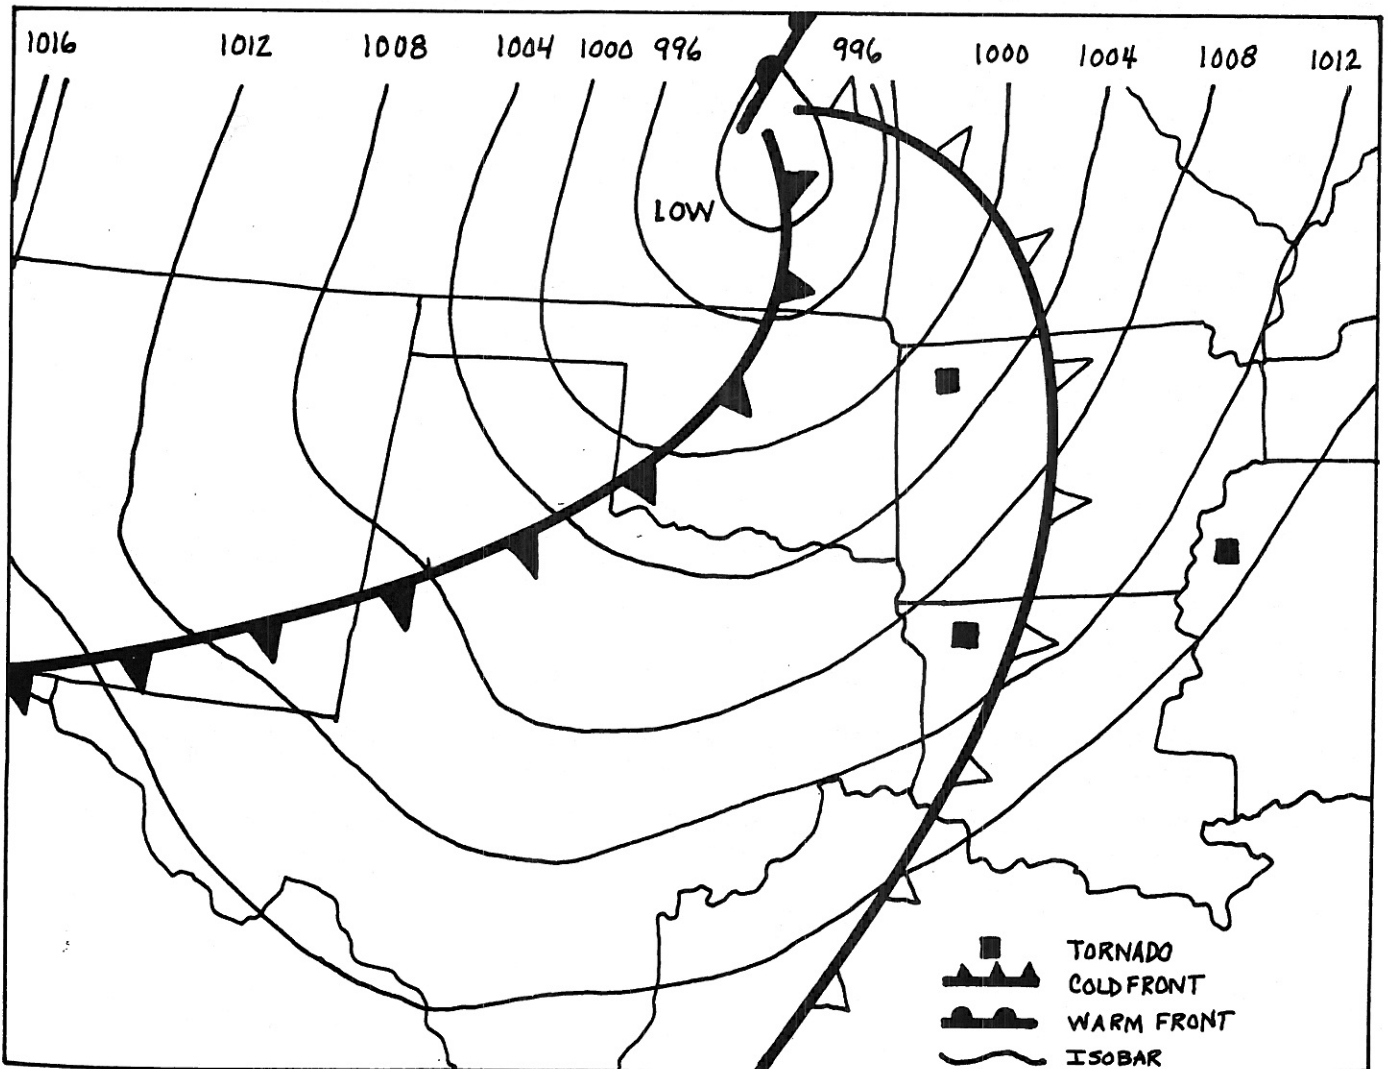

meteorology the study of weather

psychology the study of the human mind and behavior

seismology the study of earthquakes theology the study of religion

zoology the study of animals

Name _____

-logy

A. A person who studies biology is a biologist. What is a person called who studies the following subjects? Write the word in the blank.

1. zoology _____
2. psychology _____
3. archeology _____
4. meteorolgy _____
5. seismology _____

B. From the word list, select the word that best completes each sentence. Write the word in the blank.

1. In order to help people who are mentally ill, one must study _____.
2. If you enjoy learning about life in ancient Egypt, you might try studying _____.
3. To plan activities for a vacation, it would be helpful to know something about _____ in order to bring the right clothes.
4. If you are interested in animals, you could take up the study of _____.
5. If you lived in California, it might be wise to know something about _____ so that you would understand what was happening when the earth trembled.

C. Do the following activities on separate sheets of paper.

1. Write a sentence for each word totaling 6 sentences.

Make sure that 3 of the sentences have phrases and 3 of the sentences have dependent clauses. Remember that a clause has a verb and subject but cannot stand alone:

Example of a clause: When John finished class

Example of phrase: in the classroom

Please label each phrase and each clause.